DID YOU KNOW THIS ABOUT ST. MARY?

Rev. Edmund Murnane 1950-1969

In October 1964, Monsignor Murnane embarked on the implementation of changes in the liturgy as directed by Vatican II, including conducting Mass in the vernacular. Shortly after, Dale Cooley composed one of the first musical settings for Mass in the vernacular in the archdiocese. In 1967, he began preparing his parishioners for the formation of a parish council. To make the liturgy more engaging for young people, guitar accompaniment for the singing at the nine o'clock Sunday masses began in September 1968. In January 1969, an evening Mass at 5:15 pm was added on weekdays.

Monsignor Murnane was deeply involved in various aspects of the parish and broader community. In addition to his duties as pastor, he also took on the roles of state chaplain for the Catholic Daughters of America and the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women. Furthermore, he served as the archdiocesan director of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, archdiocesan consultor, and dean of the Eugene deanery. He was also actively engaged in the Archdiocesan Building Commission and the Board of Education. After 19 years as pastor at St. Mary in Eugene, he expressed a desire to be relieved of the responsibilities associated with such a large parish. This led to his appointment as pastor of St. Catherine in Veneta, where he continued to impress with his leadership until his retirement.

After spending such a long tenure in the parish, it's no wonder that there are many personal stories about Monsignor Murnane. He was a cheerful Irishman who always pleased his parishioners by singing Irish songs at every gathering. One unforgettable memory was when he led a group of parishioners on a trip to the Holy Land and sang hymns with them as they crossed the Nile on a slow-moving boat. Monsignor Murnane always dressed impeccably and once said that he felt he should look his best as a representative of the Lord. He was very particular about doing things correctly. His mother taught him how to cook, iron, and sew because she secretly hoped he would become a priest and needed those skills. He became a talented cook and, after he moved to Veneta, always offered to prepare a home-cooked meal for the Marist auctions, which was sought after and eagerly bid for. Though he was often occupied with building programs, it was said that "he always had time for everyone" and for the spiritual well-being of his parishioners. To be continued.

¿SABÍAS ESTO SOBRE SANTA MARÍA?

Rev. Edmund J. Murnane 1929 - 1950

En octubre de 1964, monseñor Murnane se embarcó en la implementación de cambios en la liturgia según las indicaciones del Vaticano II, incluida la celebración de la Misa en lengua vernácula. Poco después, Dale Cooley compuso uno de los primeros escenarios musicales para misa en lengua vernácula en la arquidiócesis. En 1967 comenzó a preparar a sus feligreses para la formación de un consejo parroquial. Para hacer la liturgia más atractiva para los jóvenes, en septiembre de 1968 se inició el acompañamiento de guitarra para los cantos en las misas dominicales de las nueve. En enero de 1969, se añadió una misa vespertina a las 5:15 pm entre semana.

Monseñor Murnane estuvo profundamente involucrado en varios aspectos de la parroquia y de la comunidad en general. Además de sus deberes como pastor, también asumió las funciones de capellán de estado de las Hijas Católicas de América y del Consejo Arquidiocesano de Mujeres Católicas. Además, se desempeñó como director arquidiocesano de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, consultor arquidiocesano y decano del decanato de Eugene. También participó activamente en la Comisión Arquidiocesana de Construcción y en la Junta de Educación. Después de 19 años como párroco de Sta. Maria en Eugene, expresó su deseo de ser relevado de las responsabilidades asociadas con una parroquia tan grande. Esto lo llevó a ser nombrado párroco de Sta. Catalina en Veneta, donde continuó impresionando con su liderazgo hasta su jubilación.

Después de pasar tanto tiempo en la parroquia, no es de extrañar que haya muchas historias personales sobre monseñor Murnane. Era un irlandés alegre que siempre complacía a sus feligreses cantando canciones irlandesas en cada reunión. Un recuerdo inolvidable fue cuando dirigió a un grupo de feligreses en un viaje a Tierra Santa y cantó himnos con ellos mientras cruzaban el Nilo en un barco que se movía lentamente. Monseñor Murnane siempre vestía impecablemente y una vez dijo que sentía que debía lucir lo mejor posible como representante del Señor. Era muy exigente en hacer las cosas correctamente. Su madre le enseñó a cocinar, planchar y coser porque secretamente esperaba que él se convirtiera en sacerdote y necesitaba esas habilidades. Se convirtió en un cocinero de talento y, después de mudarse a Veneta, siempre se ofreció a preparar una comida casera para las subastas maristas, que era solicitada y ofertada con entusiasmo. Aunque a menudo estaba ocupado con programas de construcción, se decía que "siempre tenía tiempo para todos" y para el bienestar espiritual de sus feligreses. Continuará
