Suggested song for meditation while lighting one purple advent candle: "Come, O Come Emmanuel"

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 11:7-12

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed shaken by the wind? Why then did you go out? To see a man dressed in soft robes? Behold, those who wear soft robes are in kings' houses. Why then did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before you.' Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force."

MEDITATION

The Lord is on his way. He is coming to save us. What a joy to ponder that his salvation will set us free! No more crying, no more pain. Our lives are filled with blessings, but there are also losses and bitter times that can be difficult to endure. The Lord is our deliverer who stands by to lift these burdens and set our feet aright. What wonderful news! What a glorious God we serve! Our response is needed, and we should make every effort to draw nearer. Nazareth held in plain sight the Savior of the world. He was familiar to them. When he returned to preach the coming of the kingdom, they rejected him because they could not believe that one of them could be the chosen one. God's salvation is fulfilled in our hearing, yet we turn away from his love. Now is the time to turn again to him. Today is the day of salvation. We are redeemed by his offering of his own life. Be at peace, but do not delay any longer.

PRAYER

Stir up your power, O Lord, and return. We have wandered, and our hearts have become hard. Rend the heavens and come down, saving Lord. Rescue us from that which attacks us; protect us from the threatening perils caused by our sins. Help us to live not in our past but in your light. By your might redeem us, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Apostles' Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be . . .

PRAYER CHALLENGE FOR THE WEEK

Pray for each person who you will give a gift to this Christmas. If possible, endeavor to take care of most of your shopping by the end of the week to focus on higher things.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Remembering Advent

It always makes me laugh a little, these apocalyptic Gospel readings that come at the beginning of Advent.

What a funny juxtaposition — all of us stringing twinkle lights and wrapping presents, with Jesus thundering on about the end of the world. It's Christmas! Don't be a downer. Pour me some more eggnog and turn up the Nat King Cole.

Well, except it's not Christmas. It's Advent.

There's nothing wrong with the cultural accessories that have developed alongside this religious holiday. There's nothing wrong with the twinkle lights and the eggnog. But here's the thing: when Satan knows we're watching the front gate, he slips in the back door. And something I've found is that one back door he likes to use in my life is Cultural Christmas.

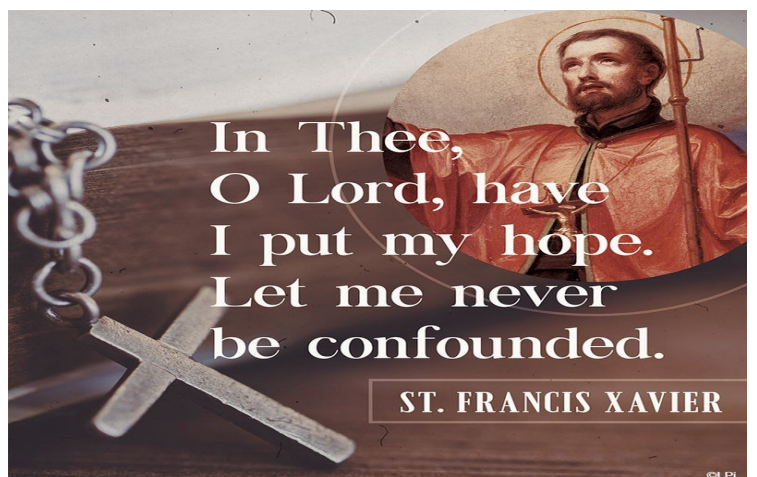

I love Cultural Christmas. I tend to overdo Cultural Christmas. I overschedule, I overdecorate, I overgift. All this "over" leads to — you guessed it! — overwhelm. "The anxieties of daily life," as Jesus describes in today's Gospel, make my heart drowsy. My spiritual Christmas joy, time and time again, is diminished — all because I embrace Cultural Christmas and ignore Advent. Satan sneaks in with the twinkle lights and the Christmas carols and he snatches The Present like the nasty little Grinch he is. He photobombs my experience of the religious holidays with the anxieties I so willingly embrace because of the production that is Cultural Christmas.

So, remember to rest this Advent, folks. Rest your heart. Rest your hands. Watch the back door and the front. Remember that this is the perfect time to be thinking about the state of your soul and not just the state of your house.

(Even though, yes, I know, the guests are coming any minute.)

Please note that major celebrations, including Advent, Christmas, Easter and Pentecost will continue to depend on the generosity of our entire parish community. Special intentions for flowers will be listed in the Bulletin each week from January 11 through March 1. Please sign up and make your donation in the office.

EL PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

6 | 1 DE DICIEMBRE DE 2024

Canto sugerido para meditar mientras se enciende una vela morada de adviento: "Ven, ven Emmanuel"

ESCRITURA: Mateo 11:7-12

Mientras se alejaban, Jesús comenzó a hablar a las multitudes acerca de Juan: "¿Qué salisteis a ver al desierto? ¿Una caña sacudida por el viento? ¿Por qué salisteis? ¿A ver a un hombre vestido de ropas delicadas? He aquí, los que visten ropas delicadas están en las casas de los reyes. ¿Por qué salisteis? ¿A ver a un profeta? Sí, os digo, y más que un profeta. Este es de quien está escrito: "He aquí, yo envío mi mensajero delante de tu faz, el cual preparará tu camino delante de ti". De cierto os digo que entre los nacidos de mujer no se ha levantado nadie mayor que Juan el Bautista; sin embargo, el más pequeño en el reino de los cielos es mayor que él. Desde los días de Juan el Bautista hasta ahora, el reino de los cielos ha sufrido violencia, y los violentos lo arrebatan".

MEDITACIÓN

El Señor está en camino. Viene a salvarnos. ¡Qué alegría pensar que su salvación nos hará libres! No más llanto, no más dolor. Nuestras vidas están llenas de bendiciones, pero también hay pérdidas y tiempos amargos que pueden ser difíciles de soportar. El Señor es nuestro libertador que está a nuestro lado para quitarnos estas cargas y ponernos en camino. ¡Qué maravillosa noticia! ¡Qué Dios tan glorioso al que servimos! Nuestra respuesta es necesaria y debemos hacer todo lo posible para acercarnos. Nazaret tenía a la vista al Salvador del mundo. Les era familiar. Cuando regresó a predicar la llegada del reino, lo rechazaron porque no podían creer que uno de ellos pudiera ser el elegido. La salvación de Dios se cumple en nuestros oídos, pero nos alejamos de su amor. Ahora es el momento de volvernos a él. Hoy es el día de la salvación. Somos redimidos por su ofrenda de su propia vida. Estén en paz, pero no demoren más.

ORACIÓN

Aviva tu poder, oh Señor, y regresa. Hemos vagado y nuestro corazón se ha endurecido. Rasga los cielos y desciende, Señor, salvador. Rescátanos de lo que nos ataca; protégenos de los peligros amenazantes causados por nuestros pecados. Ayúdanos a vivir no en nuestro pasado sino en tu luz. Redímonos por tu poder, porque vives y reinas con el Padre y el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Credo de los Apóstoles, Padrenuestro, Avemaría, Gloria...
